FROM THE RABBI'S STUDY

Dear friends,

Nearly every Friday throughout February and March, I received an email from the City of New Rochelle School District Superintendent alerting me and my fellow New Rochelle rabbis about a new incident of anti-Semitic vandalism on school grounds. Swastikas were graffitied or etched into lockers, bathroom stalls, and textbooks at the High School, Albert Leonard Middle School, and Ward Elementary School. After an initial mishandling of the issue and an early attempt to downplay the matter, the authorities did the right thing and engaged Jewish communal leaders and Holocaust Education experts. Hopefully, with the right combination of surveillance, punitive measures against violators, and the dissemination of knowledge about the evils of Nazism to the broader student body, these kinds of incidents will not be repeated in the future.

At a recent meeting of the Westchester Board of Rabbis, I asked Westchester Jewish Council Executive Director Elliot Forchheimer whether the situation in New Rochelle is an outlier or representative of wider problems in Westchester County. He said that while there have been sporadic episodes of anti-Semitic graffiti in other towns, New Rochelle alone has an ongoing problem.

Which brings me to the question of why? Why in a calm suburb of New York City in 2019 is there a string of swastika sightings? Was it one deranged person who simply has not been caught yet? Are these examples of copycat crimes? Are the perpetrators ignorant children who do not know the significance of the swastika and are defacing school property simply to get their jollies? Do we have vicious anti-Semites living in our midst? Do the demographics of the city make an anti-Jewish outburst more likely to occur? Did a Jew do something untoward to foment a backlash? Nobody knows, and so speculation, while tempting, is unwarranted.

I was interviewed twice by News12 after the first and second incidents. But I have largely kept out of the matter, deferring to my Conservative and Reform colleagues who have dozens of congregants attending the schools in question.

But from my limited involvement I have noticed one important generational distinction in the way local Jews have reacted to the swastikas. The clergy and the old guard leadership see the swastika as a symbol of Nazism, horrific evil, and Jew-hatred. For them, it is a symbol that evokes fear. By contrast, the children see the swastika as an ethnic slur, a profanity, a reason for the perpetrator to “get into trouble,” but not something that evokes fear. On the one hand, the mild instinctive reaction on the part of young Jews is a positive testament to the integrated nature of our community, the general sense of security that we enjoy, and the objective reality that we are dealing with nothing more than petty vandalism. On the other hand, it is an unfortunate testament to the relative ignorance of our young people about man’s potential for cruelty and barbarism only 75 years after the Shoah.

We are now observing the period of Sefirah. The mourning practices (no weddings, live music, haircuts) are attributed to the sadness felt by our people after the loss of Rabbi Akiva’s thousands of disciples. A more contemporary justification for preserving the Sefirah prohibitions is in mourning of the martyrs of the Shoah. When a marginal Jew asked his/her rabbi to officiate at a Spring wedding and the rabbi forces a date change because of some obscure reason related to second century CE carnage, the couple is left annoyed. If the rabbi were to say that it is commemoration of the Holocaust, the couple would be less disgruntled with the clergy and the memory of the Shoah would find a solemn place in the minds of Jews otherwise apt to forget.

I pray for a day when sinister, contemporary reminders of past genocide no longer can be seen in our fine town.

Rabbi Evan Hoffman

THE PRESIDENT'S PERSPECTIVE

Dear Friends,

As we welcome the return of foliage to the trees, and warmth to the air, we hope to grow spiritually in love and knowledge of Torah during this season, which includes the counting of the Omer and the pilgrimage festival of Shavuot. I hope Passover was meaningful and celebrated with friends and family. May we continue to move from bondage to freedom in every aspect of our lives.

Of course, the most important day for our Shul during the next two months is the Anshe Sholom Annual Gala Testimonial Dinner on June 23 at 5 pm. Miriam and I are excited and grateful to be honored, along with Joanne Wiesner-Steiner, who will receive the inaugural Alan Glick memorial award, and Miriam and Ephraim Leiderman, who will receive recognition for their significant contributions as Outstanding Young Congregants this year. The Board of Trustees and the Dinner Committee are working hard to make this a memorable and enjoyable evening, and I hope all of you will be there.

The Annual Testimonial Dinner is the most productive fundraising event of the year for our Shul, and we typically collect about one-third of our operating budget out of the proceeds. I cannot stress enough the importance of your generosity, and I wholeheartedly request that everyone contribute to maintain and grow our Shul as a spirited center of Jewish tradition, community and education. Please make reservations as soon as possible for the dinner, and please consider placing and soliciting advertisements in our dinner journal. Your contribution really matters, so please give just a bit more than last year if possible. I realize that we are pulled in many directions with our hard-earned money, and that it seems incongruous with the Spiritual mission of our Shul to be so boldly requesting donations, but this is necessary—Thanks for understanding.

On Shavuot, the pilgrims to Jerusalem brought the Bikurim sacrifice, and recited the blessing that we read during the Passover Seder about how God has helped us throughout our communal history to fulfill our destiny—and the offerings were valid regardless of quantity. So, as you study Pirkei Avot this year, consider it a part of Tikun Olam to support Anshe Sholom.

Please attend our annual Congregational meeting on Tuesday, June 18 at 7pm to hold elections, discuss finances and other important topics.

All the Best!

Tom Grimaldi, Co-President

Sponsor•A•Kiddush

One of the highlights at Anshe Sholom is spending time together at the kiddush following Shabbat and holiday services. Our kiddush luncheons help us build the connections that make Anshe Sholom a warm and inviting congregation. In order to enhance our Shabbat joy and to maximize our schmoozing opportunities, we would like to provide enhanced kiddushes as frequently as possible, but this can only be done with your help.

By sponsoring a kiddush, you participate in supporting and fostering our sense of community. You may sponsor a kiddush in honor of someone, to remember someone, to celebrate a simcha – or, sponsor a kiddush together with a group of friends or family. You may choose to sponsor the entire kiddush for the shul, or you may help defray the kiddush costs by sponsoring part of a kiddush, or by simply making a donation. No amount is too small.

If you would like to contribute towards these special kiddushes, please contact

A MESSAGE FROM SISTERHOOD

Hello Everyone,

As I write this, Pesach was fast approaching. You will be reading this in May, after I hope everyone had a Zisen Pesach! I will be returning, B"H, after three weeks in Israel.

We want to thank everyone who participated in our Mishloach Manot program. It was a great success. Special thanks to Rabbi Evan and Rebbitzen Sari for the beautiful bags they worked so hard to assemble for us. This is Sisterhood's major fundraiser, which also spreads joy to all members of our community.

Our "Come Paint With Us" event was great fun, bringing out the inner artist in each of us. Gloria Porcaro was a wonderful teacher, and we thoroughly enjoyed her instruction, her artwork and her assistance with our projects. (See photos on page 5).

Lastly, I strongly encourage all the women in our community to become Sisterhood members. We need you to help us plan and participate in future events.

Our next Sisterhood Board Meeting is Tuesday, May 7, at 4:30pm. Please come! We will do our best to accommodate your schedule when we plan our upcoming Sisterhood Board meetings.

Sincerely with best wishes.

Joanne Wiesner-Steiner
Sisterhood President

A TORAH MINUTE

When praying the Amidah, one's feet must be in the correct position, which is together and level. We stand like the Angels with one leg.

One explanation for why we must stand like this is because when we stand in this manner, it is as if our legs are tied together and we are unable to walk or take any steps. As such, we are able to put all our thoughts into praying to G-d, correctly, word by word, without skipping letters or words, and can pray to Him with our full intent.

If one transgressed and did not have one's feet together during the Amidah, there is an opinion that he must repeat the Amidah. However, in practice we hold that we do not repeat and that we have fulfilled our obligation with the prayer that was prayed.

Please let your family, friends and colleagues know about this important website.

Dear Friends,

On Sunday, June 23th, Congregation Anshe Sholom will hold its Annual Testimonial Dinner. Our honorees are Drs. Miriam & Tom Grimaldi. The inaugural recipient of the Allan Glick Memorial Service Award will be Joanne Wiesner-Steiner. Our Young Members Appreciation Award will go to Miriam and Dr. Ephraim Leiderman.

Miriam & Tom Grimaldi first arrived in New Rochelle nearly twenty years ago, bringing with them their small children Sarah, Yaakov, and Akiva. Since then, the Grimaldi family has grown exponentially. Our shul has celebrated the arrivals of Hadassah, Tzipi, Itamar, Moshe, Emunah, Meirav, and Dov. Every Grimaldi family simcha is actually a congregational simcha, as the family has become the beloved linchpin of our community. Miriam has taken on many responsibilities in the social life of the shul. She is active on the Kiddush Committee, often personally preparing the food on Fridays. And, as a leader of Girl Scout Troop 1870, Miriam brings in kids from all over Westchester to observe Shabbat in our community. Tom is currently Co-President of the synagogue and serves as the Gabbai on Shabbat. He has been a longtime member of the board, the Men's Club and is a regular at our daily morning minyan.

Joanne Wiesner-Steiner has been a devoted member of Anshe Sholom for the past 15 years. She has been a longtime board member, and currently serves as the President of Sisterhood. After retiring from the IRS, Joanne began volunteering in the shul office on a weekly basis. Joanne is also responsible for our monthly Jewish movie series. As we inaugurate an annual service award in memory of our beloved friend and benefactor Allan Glick, it is appropriate that the first recipient be someone as committed to the shul as Joanne.

In the short time they have been with us, Miriam and Ephie have become an important part of the rejuvenation of our shul. In addition to regular minyan participation, Ephie often leads davening. They open their home to guests, and of equal importance, have been a driving force in bringing other young families to our community. Their upbeat and positive attitudes, along with baby Becca, bring a smile and warmth that is palpable.

We hope you will attend the dinner and celebrate with our worthy honorees. As you know, the Testimonial Dinner is Anshe Sholom's most important annual fundraiser and its success is critical to our financial well being and continued existence. Please show your support by reserving dinner tickets and by making an additional donation and / or placing a generous advertisement in the Souvenir Journal to be distributed at the dinner. We encourage you to solicit ads from vendors with whom you do business. Half of the cost of all advertisements you place (in your name or ads you solicit) will be credited toward the price of your dinner ticket(s), with a maximum of two tickets. The price of each dinner ticket is $200.

We have included a subscription form for purchasing Souvenir Journal advertisements on the next page. Additional forms are available from the synagogue office. Please join us in the Anshe Sholom ballroom at five o'clock on Sunday, June 23th.

We look forward to sharing this celebration of another year of religious growth and community with you.

Sincerely,
Marc Bessler, Co-President
