FROM THE RABBI'S STUDY

Dear friends,

The holidays are early this year. As I write this column, though there is still more than a week left in August, I am already listening to recordings of Selichot and the Nusach of Yamim Noraim in preparation for High Holiday services. As of now, our plan is to have only one minyan, indoors. Seating will be socially distanced in the ballroom, while family units will be able to sit together in the Sanctuary pews. Rabbi Kracko will lead us in Shacharit and David Reitberger will daven Musaf. All congregants need to wear masks covering their mouth and nose. All congregants need to be vaccinated, or submit a negative PCR test within 3 days of Yom Tov. We anticipate having a Children's Service on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur in the tent. There will be an extra round of Shofar blowing in the tent upon the conclusion of Rosh Hashanah davening. There will also be Shofar blowing at Tashlich in Hudson Park. Please join me for the Shabbat Shuva Drasha. My topic will be "Beauty & Brutality: Kapparot (and Judaism) in the Eye of the Beholder."

On Yom Kippur, we expect to have a long break in between Musaf and Mincha. I encourage everyone to participate in the lengthy learning session on Yom Kippur afternoon. It is an intellectually stimulating and spiritually meaningful session, in addition to helping break up the long afternoon. If you would like to buy a Lulav & Etrog set through the shul, please let me know by September 6th. Pickup will be on Sunday morning, September 19th 9-11AM. We hope to have a very joyous Sukkot at Anshe Sholom, with Kiddushes each Yom Tov day and a Sisterhood Sukkah Dinner. Simchat Torah services will be held in the tent to accommodate the children and to facilitate dancing.

I am happy to announce that Yochai & Meitav Feldman and their children have moved into the neighborhood. The Feldmans are Shlichim from Israel. They will be teaching at Westchester Day School and running our Youth Department. In the coming weeks, I encourage all of our shul's young families to bring their children to outdoor children's services on Shabbat mornings. Yochai and Meitav will also be bringing Israel-themed and Hebrew-language programming to Anshe Sholom. We look forward to benefiting from their presence in the community.

Saturday, September 11th is the 20th anniversary of the attack on the World Trade Center. Every year, I represent the New Rochelle Jewish community at the 9/11 Vigil run by the local VFW at the American Legion. This year, the event will take place on the lawn of City Hall at 7:30PM. I strongly encourage you to attend. Shabbat ends early enough for us to make the second half of the program, and Peter Parente was kind enough to accommodate my Shabbat observance by scheduling me as the final speaker. It is always a solemn and meaningful program and a moment of interreligious solidarity.

I encourage everyone to partake of our Torah study classes. Daf Yomi continues every day on Zoom. We are currently learning Masekhet Sukkah. The Chumash class is on Thursdays at 8:15PM. We recently started a new class on Rambam's Mishneh Torah on Shabbat mornings at 8:30AM. We are currently learning the Laws of Kings. The Jewish History class will resume on Mondays 7PM after Simchat Torah. This year's course will be "The History of Anti-Semitism." Recordings of the history class will also be available on YUTORAH.ORG. Rabbi Kracko's class on the weekly parashah continues via Zoom, Wednesdays at 7:00 PM.

Sari, Eli, and Elana join me in wishing you and your loved ones a happy and healthy 5782.

Shanah Tovah u'Metukah,

Rabbi Evan Hoffman

THE PRESIDENT'S PERSPECTIVE

Dear Friends,

As I write this message, just hours before the bulletin goes to print, I sit here smiling, recalling our beautiful Shabbat of August 28th, when we officially welcomed into our community our new youth directors, Meitav and Yochai Feldman. For the first time in many years, Anshe Sholom enjoyed a professional youth program on Shabbat morning. It was a beautiful demonstration of the hard work and dedication on the part of so many of our shul community.

I will refrain from listing everyone who has been involved by name but, I do want to thank Rebbetzin Sari and Rabbi Hoffman for bringing so much to Anshe Sholom over the past 9 years, while strengthening our community, making it known as an intellectual, warm and 'heimish' shul, and Dr. Aviva and Michael Berkowitz, for seeing the potential in South New Rochelle and bringing with them so many of their friends.

Many, many others have donated money and countless hours of precious time, beyond anyone's expectations, and for that, we are all truly grateful.

Meitav and Yochai's program yesterday gave us the beautiful sight of so many children sitting in a circle, singing songs and tefilla, learning Hebrew, playing games, and just having a wonderful time. The program began with all the children together in one group and then separated into two groups — those in 1st grade and up went with Yochai to one side of the tent, and the younger children remained with Meitav. The program concluded with a meaningful Alef Bet ceremony, where the younger children sweetly learned the Hebrew letters while eating honey! A great time was had by all.

Following our davening and the youth program, we all came together for a delicious kiddush luncheon that was generously sponsored by Laurie and Chaim Greenberg in honor of their birthdays and first wedding anniversary — Mazal Tov!

Later that afternoon, we gathered in my backyard for "Perek on the Lawn". Here too, the Feldmans, who are truly master educators, wowed us with a program for the kids while the adults learned and noshed. I cannot wait to see what they have in store for us next week!

The summer flew by and it's hard to believe that the High Holidays are upon us once more. With the holidays beginning so "early" this year, it feels like the summer was even shorter than usual.

So, as we begin 5782, please know that everyone in the Anshe Sholom community — including the Sisterhood, the Board of Trustees, and Rabbi Hoffman, are always here to support you.

But, to paraphrase John F. Kennedy's most famous quote, 'ask not what Anshe Sholom can do for you — ask what you can do for Anshe Sholom and our community.'

There is always so much to be done in a shul, and we need your assistance to:

- Make the minyan
- Donate money
- Work on programming
- Volunteer in the office
- Join a committee
- Help with marketing
- Host potential members
- Welcome new families

I would like to take this opportunity to say le'hitraot to our long-time members, Dr. Jerry and Charlotte Lovich, who are moving to Connecticut to be closer to their family. The Lovich family have been members of Anshe Sholom for 52 years and we will miss them dearly. We wish them all good things in this new chapter of their lives.

At the same time, we welcome two families who have joined our community: Dr. Baruch & Gitit Popovtzer and their three children moved to New Rochelle a few weeks ago from Israel and Rachel Karpoff & Adam Saltzman, who visited Anshe Sholom in June, moved here just last week. If you know of anyone interested in learning more about Anshe Sholom and South New Rochelle, please don't hesitate to put them in touch with me.

Wishing you and your loved ones a Shana Tova u'Metuka, a year of good health and happy times. I look forward to greeting you in shul. May 5782 be a year of peace for Israel, Am Yisrael, and the whole world.

From our family to yours, L'Shana Tova!
Yael, Shlomi, Liam, and Avidan

Sincerely,
Yael Schulman
President

A MESSAGE FROM SISTERHOOD

Dear friends,

Shana Tova u'Metuka — a Good and Sweet New Year to everyone! May the coming year bring health, happiness and meaningful connections in our personal and spiritual endeavors.

The Sisterhood Honey Drive was a success, with recipients receiving greetings for a Shana Tova v'Metuka, along with a jar of honey. Thank you to all who participated and helped, including Lee Katz, Steven Neustadter and AnnBeth Cohen.

We are sad to see some members leaving and wish them all the best in their new locations: Long-time members Charlotte and Jerry Lovich; and the Panitch and Jay families. They will be missed.

Sisterhood is solidifying our plans for Sukkot, which will include, B"H, a Friday night dinner in the Sukkah. The Sukkah is going up on September 12, and will be available for outdoor dining, with adjustments to facilitate maximum air circulation. Please see enclosed form (on p. 9) to reserve your place for the dinner. We may want to limit seating due to continued concerns for Covid-19. (If you are not yet vaccinated, you may want to do that ASAP in order to participate.) We will also offer a "Shabbat-to-Go" option for those who would prefer that.

We have been thoroughly enjoying Chaim's wonderful cooking, and wish him "Mazal Tov" on his business. To paraphrase the movie "Casablanca," I think this is the beginning of a beautiful friendship, and great food, the best we've had here at Anshe Sholom! (Keep those salads and vegetables coming!)

We hope you will keep Sisterhood in mind, and come join us to plan more fun activities for all.

We welcome our new Youth Directors, Maitav and Yochai Feldman, and wish them Mazal Tov in another new chapter for Anshe Sholom.

May we all be inscribed for a wonderful year.

B'Shalom,
Joanne Wiesner-Steiner
 Sisterhood President

A TORAH MINUTE

It says in the Torah “Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy.” One must remember Shabbat from the first day of the week (Sunday). How is this done? If one finds something good, one should keep it for Shabbat.

This is what Shammai did, and they say about him that all his days he ate in honor of Shabbat. If he found a good animal (for food), he would keep it aside for Shabbat. If he found a better one, he would take it and keep it aside for Shabbat and eat the first one during the week.

Hillel on the other hand, didn't do this. He would bless G-d for providing us every day, with what was needed for that day. It's not that Hillel disagreed with Shammai, quite the contrary; but Hillel had faith in G-d that He would provide a better portion for Shabbat than for the rest of the week.

RABBI EVAN HOFFMAN—Adding Time to the Sacred: Yom Kippur Style

There is a mitzvah to add time to Shabbat at both the beginning and end of the day. This is accomplished by lighting candles and accepting the sanctity of the Sabbath eighteen minutes (or some other length of time) prior to sunset, and by delaying Havdalah until some length of time after darkness has descended. This obligation also applies to holidays. The Torah itself alludes to this requirement in stating that Yom Kippur extends from evening until evening, beginning on 9 Tishri. Since Yom Kippur is, in fact, observed on 10 Tishri, the implication of the Biblical passage is that observance of sacred time should commence while it is still 9 Tishri prior to sundown.

The obligation of adding to sacred time led to the development of several customs observed on the eve of Yom Kippur. Firstly, we stop eating well before sunset. Secondly, the ladies light candles even earlier than they would for a typical Shabbat. Thirdly, we begin the Kol Nidre service while it is still daytime. Since Kol Nidre has a quasi-judicial flavor to it, we must begin its recitation before sundown, being that courts do not function at night. Fourthly, the men put on a Tallit for the Maariv service, and are able to recite a blessing over the Tallit because the custom is being observed while still technically daytime.

At the end of Yom Kippur, there is no popular will to extend the sacred time any longer than necessary given that people are hungry from the fast. Nonetheless, Havdalah is not recited after Ne'ilah. Rather, it is recited after Maariv, usually several minutes after the stars appear. In some synagogues, the shofar is not blown until after Havdalah, further extending an element of Yom Kippur's sanctity a little while longer.

Photos from the Anshe Sholom Men's Club Summer BBQ

*Thank you to Constance Levi and The Men's Club for this wonderful, delicious BBQ.
Special thanks to Constance for opening up her home to us and being such a generous hostess, and to the many others who helped make this gathering SO wonderful.*
