FROM THE RABBI'S STUDY

Dear friends,

With summer vacation season upon us, I want to appeal to our membership to participate fully in synagogue activities when you are not away. Morning minyan on Sundays, Mondays, Thursdays, and Fridays would benefit from your presence. Friday night and Shabbat mincha services are also in need of additional manpower.

I want to take this opportunity to say farewell to Benji and Eliana Cohen, who spent three years in our community and who recently celebrated with us the birth of their first child, Ayala Shulamit. We also say goodbye to Isaac & Michal Manaster and their children Racheli, Simcha, Azi, and Emunah. The Manaster family spent six years in New Rochelle. We wish them much hatzlacha on their upcoming Aliyah to Israel.

I want to warmly welcome to our community Perry Kangoun & Liora Rubinstein, who recently moved onto Hanford Ave. We expect more new families to join our community over the summer. We will have a special outreach Shabbaton on July 29-30 for prospective new families. I strongly encourage all of our members to attend the Shabbaton and to invite guests for the occasion.

At the recent congregational meeting we welcomed five new board members: Steven Hirsch, Constance Levi, Miriam Leiderman, Adam Saltzman, and Paul Warhit. I want to thank them for offering their services and talents on behalf of the synagogue. We also thank those who are leaving the board after many years of devoted service: Ruth Grayson, Marlene Lerner, and Elihu Massel.

Stay tuned to the shul Whatsapp group for a new project I recently started. Every weekday morning, I plan to send out a short video with insights into the Siddur. Both Daf Yomi and Rabbi Kracko's Wednesday Zoom classes will continue throughout the summer. My Tuesday and Thursday classes will resume in September. Next season we will be learning the History of Jerusalem on Tuesday nights and Masekhet Sukkah on Thursday nights.

If you would like to join the Men's Club Book Club, feel free to pick up a copy of When They Come for Us, We'll Be Gone by Gal Beckerman. It is a thrilling history of the struggle to save Soviet Jewry. The Book Club will be meeting later in July.

I am pleased to announce that the shul library is once again operational. Nine months after the terrible flooding episode, the room is in great condition and the bookshelves are in proper order. Come take a look and sit down to learn.

In communal news, the New Rochelle Jewish Coalition is being reconstituted. If you would like to be Anshe Sholom's lay representative to the broader Jewish community, please let me know.

In the coming weeks, you will receive membership letters for 2022-2023 and High Holiday ticket information. Please return those forms to the office in a prompt manner.

Last, but not least, I want to congratulate Eli Hoffman for being the winning pitcher in the championship game of the Westchester/Bronx Youth Baseball Minors Division. He struck out 13 batters in 5 strong innings against City Island. His proud father enjoyed much nachas.

Best wishes for an enjoyable summer,

Rabbi Evan Hoffman
